IS DOING FINE WORK IN ALMA

Captain Daisy MacClaine of the Salvation Army is Getting Results.

PROTECTOR OF YOUNG GIRLS

"War Cry" Publishes Fine Story of Results She is Achieving in This City.

A very interesting article on the work of Captain Daisy MacClaine of the Salvation Army here, appears in the War Cry this week.

The article is an inside story of some of the work that Captain MacClaine is doing in Alma, and will prove of much interest to Record readers. The article in part follows: This is a story of a city and a Salvation Army Corps. It relates how, through co-operation, and interests of both are advanced and how an appreciative community is collecting one hundred per cent on an investment in the Army.

The name of the City is Alma, Michigan. Its investment in the Salvation Army is of some years standing and consists of a building which houses the work of the organization and its officers. This year, some of the citizens got an idea that the building did not look as well as it might, so they added several hundred dollars worth of repairs.

The Salvation Army officer at Alma is Captain Daisy MacClaine. In addition to her duties as Corps Officer she is also a police officer, general patron of the helpless and guardian of a number of girls who have been placed in her care by the courts of that place. Her work for the city is given gratis, and although on the roll as a regular member of the Alma police force, she receives no official salary.

Captain MacClaine is not physically strong. In combat with an offender against the law she would scarcely be able to show great physical ability. She might even get the worst of the battle. The fact that she is not a physical giant does not cause her to "fete a gun," either. Her power as a police officer permits it, but the Captain is of an Army that enforces its rule through peaceful means. She does not need a gun.

About a month ago, a boy of fifteen years of age broke into the Mayor's store and stole $14 worth of merchandise. He was brought before the judge and after hearing, paroled to Captain MacClaine. Today he is attending the high school, is a member of the Boy Scouts at the Corps, is thoroughly converted and attends every meeting.

A number of girls who have been paroled to the Army officer have bright prospects. There is an eleven-year-old girl in one of the Army Rescue Homes who has cause to thank the Captain. When she was found the little lass was a badly abused girl and her future seemed anything but rosy. Today she is attending school and has all of the care and guidance which surround home children.

All this without lessening in any way the development of the Alma Corps. There is a splendid Corps of Blood and Fire soldiers; a large Sunday School and troops of Boy and Girl Guards.

START TONIGHT

Opening Banquet of Saginaw-Bay City Drive This Evening.

Saginaw, Mich., April 8 (Special)—Saginaw and Bay City are all ready for the opening of the Alma College endowment fund drive, which starts with the opening banquets to be held tonight, one at the Bancroft hotel here, with one hundred earnest workers on the job, and one at the Winonah hotel in Bay City, where the one hundred workers that will canvass Bay City will meet.

Saginaw has a quota of $30,000 and Bay City a quota of $20,000, a total for the two cities of $50,000. At the opening banquet tonight it will be announced that $8,000 of the $50,000 fund being sought in the two cities, has already been pledged.

C. B. Chatfield of Bay City, chairman in that community, is the largest single contributor in the two cities so far, having a subscription already made of $3,000.

The members of the committees in each city feel certain that the drives will go over.

FINAL CONSIDERATION

Committee of House to Consider Gaspie Bill Today.

Lansing, Mich., April 8 (By U. P.)—The Gaspie bill providing for a maximum interurban fare of three cents a mile on the roads of Michigan comes up for final consideration today in a committee of the whole house. It was approved yesterday.

Under the bill the Michigan Public Utilities Commission is given power to lower the rates whenever they appear to the commission to be unreasonable.

Alma Can—If City of Alma Wills

Up to yesterday noon a total of $41,537 had been subscribed to the Greater Alma Memorial Gymnasium and Auditorium Fund.

Of this amount approximately $14,000 has been pledged by the students and faculty of Alma College.

The remaining $28,000 has been pledged by 443 residents of Alma, who have no direct college affiliations.

Alma has a population of 7,542.

In order to put the Greater Alma Appeal across, it is only necessary for the 7,099 residents of this city who have not subscribed, to duplicate the amount pledged by the 443 who have subscribed.

The City of Alma has not yet been canvassed. There are hundreds of persons still to be seen.

A total of 1,200 contributors would send the campaign rushing over the goal.

Until 1,200 pledges have been secured the canvassing organization will not consider its work done.

MINERS REFUSED REQUEST, CLAIM

Turn Down Lloyd George's Appeal to Renew Negotiations.

SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS

Transport Workers and Railway Men Vote to Strike, It is Said.

London, April 8 (By U. P.)—Hope of a speedy settlement of the English coal miners strike has received another heavy jolt, the British miners having practically refused Premier Lloyd George's request that they renew negotiations with the mine owners, the board of trade announced today.

The demand of the mine owners that steps be taken by the miners to prevent the flooding of the mines, which the miners will not agree to, is believed to be the biggest reason that is keeping committees from the striking miners from meeting with the colliery owners.

The transport workers who yesterday agreed to support the miners in their strike movement, have been joined by the railway men who have also voted on a sympathetic strike movement. It is said that the two organizations have reached an agreement for a general strike if ordered. Plans are being made by the transport workers and railway men to strike on Sunday night if negotiations are not under way by that time between the miners and colliery owners. Lloyd George is prepared to present a government representative to open negotiations if the miners and mine owners should get together, but there does not appear to be any immediate hope of committees getting together.

There is no slackening in the preparations to have the nation ready to withstand a prolonged industrial paralysis, which is certain to come from a general strike, which early today appears to be certain.

London, April 8 (By U. P.)—One colliery near Edinburgh was stormed by several thousand miners, their wives and children, a report reaching here says. Stones and clubs were used in driving voluntary workers from the pits.

CARNIVAL TONIGHT

The Junior class of Alma high school will give a carnival tonight and Saturday night at the high school that is expected to be a scream from start to finish. Great plans have been made by the third year class for the big event, and those who attend are certain to have plenty of amusement. Doors open promptly at 7 o'clock each night.

Special for Saturday—Carnations 50c per dozen at Kleinhaus.—adv.

GRATIOT GOING TO EASTERN TIME

St. Louis and Ithaca Have Also Adopted Eastern Time For Summer.

Gratiot county will operate on Eastern time this summer without a question, as the three largest places in the county have now adopted the faster time as the legal time for the respective communities for the summer months.

The places which have fixed the time change are Ithaca, St. Louis and Alma. Ithaca changes Sunday, while Alma and St. Louis change Saturday night.

Ithaca, Mich., April 8 (Special)—Ithaca will go to Eastern Standard time at midnight Sunday night, April 10, a resolution passed by the village council, fixing the time change and the date.

St. Louis, Mich., April 8 (Special)—The city council here has passed a resolution making Eastern Standard time the legal time for the city of St. Louis during the summer months. The resolution, which the council passed, fixes midnight Saturday night, April 9, as the time when the clocks of the city will be turned ahead one hour.

FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral of Well Known Alma Man Held this Afternoon.

The funeral of Andrew J. Hall, well known Alma resident, who died at his home on State street, Wednesday evening, was held from the home this afternoon.

Rev. Davis of the Episcopal church had charge of the services at the late residence, and Ithaca Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 40, had charge of the services at Riverside cemetery.

TWO KILLED

Automobile Went Through Railing Near Cadillac.

Cadillac, Mich., April 8 (By U. P.)—Clon Bandell and Clyde Haskins are killed and two others seriously injured here late last evening when an automobile driven by Bandell went through a railing on Long bridge over the west cove of Lake Cadillac.

SAGINAW VALLEY IS NEARLY READY

Preparations for Alma College Endowment Campaign Are Nearly Completed.

Saginaw, Mich., April 7—Alma college has been fortunate in its Saginaw Valley friends in the past and it is equally fortunate in being able to rally strong men to its support in connection with its pending appeal. Mr. M. W. Tanner has accepted the general chairmanship of the Saginaw region. Martin M. Brady, of West Saginaw, is the chairman of the preliminary gifts committee, while the publicity in connection with the campaign is under the direction of the Rev. William H. Mason.

Mr. C. B. Chatfield, of the Chatfield Milling Company, has accepted the chairmanship of the Bay City district. Eugene Smith heads the committee that is making a canvass for preliminary gifts, the Rev. J. Roy Van Wyck being the publicity dynamo.

While no quotas have been apportioned, the Saginaw organization has accepted $30,000 as its goal. The Bay City objective is $20,000. The Saginaw region includes the Alpena, Mt. Pleasant and Saginaw valley districts. The organizations already formed outside of Bay City and Saginaw are endeavoring to raise a total of $5,000.

Texas City has a live committee at work headed by the Rev. Homer Gimes. Isadore Friedman is the preliminary gifts chairman. In Harrisville, A. Silverthorne is the local chairman. The Rev. Frank A. Ingram has accepted the leadership in Alpena. In the Mt. Pleasant district, which is composed of Chas. Gladwin, Isabella and Midland counties, Prof. Kendall P. Brooks is the chairman. In Midland the Presbyterian Brotherhood will undertake the Alma canvass on April 11 under the leadership of the Rev. V. V. Nichols. C. H. Macomber is chairman.

Harrisville, which is in the Alpena district, has already secured twice its quota, as a result of one meeting.

OBITUARY

Eva May Crandell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crandell, was born near Lyons, Mich., February 11, 1862, and departed from this life April 2, 1921, at the age of 59 years, one month and 22 days.

On January 3, 1883, she was united in marriage to Charles Greenhoe at Ionia, making their first home on a farm near Muir, latter moving to Gratiot county settling on the farm which they still own. To this union three sons were born, Theodore and Lewis, both of Elwell, one dying in infancy. Besides the sons she leaves to mourn their loss a husband, five grandsons, a sister and four brothers, besides a host of friends.

ONLY 443 HAVE MADE PLEDGES

Subscriptions Must Be Made More Extended if Campaign Is a Success.

AVERAGE AMOUNT IS $91.25

Total Subscription Up to Noon Thursday Amounts to $41,537.00.

If the Alma College endowment campaign is to become a success it must come through a far greater number of subscribers to the fund. Every person in the City of Alma should be and probable is interested in the results of the campaign. Community pride should be sufficient to cause everyone to rally to a work that means much to the future of the city, not necessarily for next year or the year after, but through the years still to come, years far in advance of 1922, 1925 or 1930. This campaign is the beginning of an era for a greater Alma, and every person in Alma should be interested.

Being interested every person in Alma should rally to the cause to the best of his or her ability, yet it cannot be said that this is true yet. No one in Alma wants the campaign to end in failure, but that is what will happen unless Alma people get a proper perspective of the campaign and do their bit.

Up to Wednesday noon there were only 351 pledges in the endowment campaign. At noon Thursday the number had increased to only 443. At noon on Thursday the total amount that had been raised in the campaign was only $41,537, against a quota of $77,000, counting in the college quota. During the twenty-four hours previous to Thursday noon only $3,487 was reported as pledged by the solicitors in the campaign.

It is estimated that there should be at least one thousand pledges in the endowment campaign in Alma for Alma College. Some hundreds of these should be for substantial amounts. It is true that everyone in Alma cannot give $100.00 or more, but Alma College is an Alma institution, and every person should do all that he thinks he can in aiding in making Alma College one of the finest small colleges in the state.

It is necessary that Alma do her part before the college goes out in the state after funds. Alma College seeks $685,000 for additional endowment and is seeking only slightly more than one-tenth of this amount in Alma. Yet Alma as a whole will reap the benefit of the entire amount.

Not only will a considerable sum of this money be spent in Alma in the way of new buildings, but every new student, every additional student that comes to Alma College as a result of the larger Alma College, is bringing to Alma money that will be spent in this city.

Right now Alma College faculty and her student body spends well over $100,000 per year in Alma. This has been done for years. Yet the college in seeking to enlarge its sphere of usefulness in the world is asking Alma for only $77,000, a small part of the total amount that has been spent here in the past.

Alma cannot afford to let this campaign fail to achieve the goal that has been set. It means too much to Alma.

It means more than just the failure of the Alma College endowment campaign for $685,000, which is likely to be the result of Alma's failure to do her part, if Alma does fail to do her part.

It means a terrific blow at civic pride. Alma has that. Alma has a reputation for going out and doing things. Alma should not hesitate in this campaign. She should and will put it over, if her citizens get the proper perspective.

A greater Alma College means more educational advantages to Alma's children, a saving to Alma people who have children to be educated in higher schools of learning. It means much to the people of central Michigan. It means much to Michigan as a whole. Michigan needs the Christian college and so does Alma. Such institutions turn out a fine class of young men and women, who become a credit to any school. There are without a doubt, people in Alma who cannot make pledges in this campaign. Yet there are still hundreds who can and should. Many of these can, perhaps only give a few dollars, yet it must be confessed there are probably many others who should be in the ranks of those who have given $100.00 or more. Before the campaign is over everyone will probably get a chance to do his or her bit. It is just a case of get the Alma spirit and PUT IT OVER.
